The Obituary

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

And after a lonely heartache
And many a silent tear
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we love so dear.

Eugene Carter was born on June 26, 1933 in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, the son of Eugene and Ada Carter.

Eugene grew up and was partially educated in Tuscaloosa, and later completed his education in Detroit, Michigan.

Eugene lived most of his adult life in New York City.

Eugene is survived by his mother, an aunt, an uncle, several cousins and many friends.

"LET US NOT CRY"
By Gwen D. Burton

Let us not cry in misery, for we know
now he is safe.
Let us not cry all our tears away
For he will want happiness just beyond our way.

Let us not grieve for so long
Our life must continue on
Let us not down our rights
Because he will always everlast in our sights.

Let us not forget about the good times
We have shared with him.
For we must continue to live our lives on and on Life must move forward.
